Her interiors are cool, her manner is calm and the new and antique furniture that she sells is widely collected. Rose is one of the most sought-after names for top-tier international interiors projects.

She says 'I'm obsessed with allowing spaces to breathe. Not every room needs a clear purpose. Wasted space, if treated properly, can make a house.'

We say 'It is difficult to pinpoint what it is that creates the sense of serenity in Rose's work, whether in a single chair or a rambling country house, but it is always there, playing a central role in her schemes.' roseuniacke.com ▷
