OVAL TABLE

Handmade from oak, this sturdy yet elegant table is a complement to the Draper's Table and the Folding Campaign Refectory Table (both in oak with a patinated steel base). Crafted in Europe, it is designed for everyday use as well as more formal settings. Available in both Natural and Ebonised Oak.

THEATRE CHAIR

Handmade in oak, this slim, refined chair is designed to compliment the Draper's Table and the Oval Table by Rose Uniacke. The comfortable barrel-formed back creates an elegant silhouette when the chair is drawn up to the table. The added 'flick' of the back legs provides a wonderful profile.

The seat cushion is traditionally upholstered in our own 'Sand' heavy weight linen. The chair was derived from an early 20th Century model designed for a theatre; the shape inspired by the 'spoonback' of the mid-nineteenth century and the Art deco lines of the late 1920s. Available in both natural and ebonised oak.

DRAPERS TABLE

Having a boarded English characteristic Oak top standing on a pair of patinated steel x-frame trestle supports in addition to a middle centre support, each with a wooden plinth. Thickness of top 3cm.

Please note that these tables are built to be used; the surfaces of table tops are given only a light oil or wax, which allows for daily use, spillage's and wear to build up patina over time. Whilst this may require some daring, an element of patience and trust will equate to a result in 18 months well worth the wait and in five years the table might even be mistaken for an antique.

The stitches are in a lighter contrasting thread and require highly intricate pattern cutting to allow the stitches to line up.

SIMPLE DINING CHAIR

The thick gauge marine grade steel frame, showing the welding signs of its construction, is woven with 'Danish Cord' to the seat and back-rest. Each chair must be used with a slim squab cushion as the cord will gently loosen over time.

The combination of metal and cord is strong yet light in appearance while offering excellent posture and comfort.

'Danish Cord' is tightly bound 3-ply paper; strong, long-lasting and as ecologically sound as it is unbleached.
