Our gallery on the Pimlico Road is home to a delicately balanced mix of furniture, lighting and textiles of different styles and from different periods from the 17th to the 21st Century; some items are rare, some chosen for their unique feel and some just unusually beautiful. If a piece requires restoration or reupholstering, we entrust the task to craftspeople, skilled in the traditional techniques required, whose work we know and who, like us, are in love with what they do.
