FINE LARGE SCALE GEORGE I PIER MIRROR

£42,000

Code: 3931

England, circa 1720

The early 18th Century rectangular frame with arched crest and quadruple bevelled borders with gilt decorated fillets, retaining the original mirror plates, the top section with a small crack and 19th repair discolouring

This beautifully understated mirror displays all the sophisticated simplicity of the finest early Queen Anne examples, in which the design is subdued to give full prominence to the large expanse of mercury glass. An unusual detail that also underlines the quality of the glass is the quadruple bevel, which would have glittered in the candlelight, emphasising the frame's shape and array of angled surfaces
