This weaving by Simone Prouvé is made up of various hand spun synthetic fibres. Prouvé used materials such as aramid and fibreglass, more commonly known for their insulating capabilities, to prevent the ageing of her work.

R

The simplicity of the design and colour palette make this a very harmonious piece. The various shades of yellow and green, as well as the curved lines, resemble colours and shapes found in nature, a familiar source of inspiration for many of Prouvé's weavings.
